

ATA Podcast Joan Orr

1:40 - Ryan introduces Joan Orr.

3:34 – Joan shares about where she first learned about positive reinforcement animal training and some stories from that time.

6:20 - Joan talks about how Karen Pryor connected her with Teresa McKeon and how TAG Teach started.

11:08 – Joan shares a story from when TAG Teach was first starting.

17:00 – Joan discusses how reaching out to people and following up on opportunities has helped her on her journey.

17:50 – Joan shares about how her background in bio-chemistry has influenced her work in animal training and TAG Teach.

23:30 – Joan talks about Doggie Detective.

27:55 – Joan talks about what she feels has helped lead her to success.

37:57 – Joan shares about the top three things she thinks animal trainers can teach human trainers and vice versa.

41:30 – Joan talks about shaping and celeration Charts.

50:43 – Joan shares about the CHATT (Convergence of Human and Animal Training and Technology) conference.

55:50 - Joan talks about her vision for the convergence of the human training and animal training professions.

1:00– Joan tells people about where they can find her online can <https://convergenceconferences.com/>, <https://tagteach.com/>, <http://autismchaostocalm.com/>, and <https://doggonecrazy.ca/> or email at joan@tagteach.com.

1:01 - Ryan thanks Joan for coming on the podcast.

1:01 - Ryan directs people to www.animaltrainingacademy.com to find out more about ATA including membership.